

Class of '77 Reunion

The Class of '77 chose the annual Huron River Fest time to stage their homecoming sort of reunion. On Saturday evening, July 14, they gathered on the patio of the Huron Yacht Club before a sumptuous spread laid out by Chuck Seigel and his crew. Two pros at staging these affairs, assisted them - Sue Coleman Frankart, '76, and Julie Mingus Koegle, '77. A couple classmates had tons of catching up to do as they had not returned home for any previous reunions. As with any reunion, there were plenty of hugs and kisses, screams of delightful recognition, and eventually sad farewells. But not before they had wiped out an entire buffet, drunk a bar half empty, and promised to return again and stay in touch.
